

U. S. NOTE

Situation Again Takes on Critical Aspect—The Refusal to Enter into Negotiations Means American Government Will Await Formal Reply of Germany, Which Will Reach Washington Monday or Tuesday.

TENTATIVE DRAFT NOT SATISFACTORY

Possibility That the Communication Which Has the Approval of Emperor William Will Be Changed Yet to Meet Demands of the United States—Lusitania Incident is Treated Indifferently in the Present Draft.

Washington, July 8.—The United States government will not engage informally in any discussion or negotiation with Germany regarding the character of the forthcoming reply to the latest American note on submarine warfare.

Ambassador Gerard at Berlin has been informed that such is the president's decision and that the ambassador is to make no comment on the tentative draft given him by the German foreign office.

If asked for an expression, he is to say that the United States will await a formal reply before discussing the question further.

The outline of the German note as cabled by Ambassador Gerard is known to be far from satisfactory to officials. With respect to the sinking of the Lusitania, no admission of liability is made. Whether in extenuation or not, the view is expressed in the draft that when torpedoed, it was not believed the Lusitania would sink as rapidly as she did. As for the future, citizens of the United States would be permitted to travel with safety on the high seas if passengers on American ships or on belligerent ships not carrying munitions of war.

Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, is in communication with his government during the day and is understood to have advised the Berlin foreign office that the form in which the proposals had been made did not appear to be acceptable to the United States.

Urges Broad Statement.

The German ambassador, it is believed, is urging his government to make a broad statement on the principles involved and reserve for later discussion arrangements concerning the separation of passenger and contraband traffic. The proposals made by Germany that belligerent passenger vessels which do not carry munitions of war shall be immune from attack provided they heed warnings of submarines and submit to visit and search is not regarded as of itself objectionable, but the German government and Germany were to enter into such an agreement. The American government, it is understood, would be willing to assist in making such arrangements.

For the United States of its own initiative to make concessions, it is held, would imperil the entire fabric of American rights with other belligerents.

Proposals Not to Issue.

As a whole, the German proposals are not regarded as well informed officials as bringing the questions at issue between the United States and Germany any nearer a settlement than they were several weeks ago. President Wilson is expected to return here Monday or Tuesday and the formal

German reply probably will reach here about the same time.

There were many evidences in official circles today that the German reply was regarded as its first critical and that the reply as outlined was very disappointing. The concessions alleged to have been made were referred to as a slight departure from the illegal position held by Germany and it was pointed out that the United States, holding a strictly legal position, was unable to make any changes or surrender any point.

Irrespective, however, of the suggestions made as to the future conduct of German submarines as suggested in the preliminary draft of the German reply, one of the chief causes of the pessimism is the treatment accorded the Lusitania tragedy.

Originally the United States pointed out that the German submarine commanders must have misapprehended their instructions and could not have intended to sink the vessel without warning. The last German note in reply contended that the vessel was armed, was an auxiliary cruiser and therefore could not be treated as a peaceful merchantman. After the United States submitted official information that the Lusitania not only was unarmed but did not attempt to resist visit and search, the German government, it is now understood, has taken the position that there was no intention to sacrifice non-combatants, and that the German commander being that the vessel would have been difficult and slow to sink and that there would be ample opportunity to remove passengers to a place of safety.

Won't Explain Conference.

Officials here declined to explain the mystery of the informal conference between Ambassador Gerard and officials of the German foreign office. They indicated that the message from the ambassador transmitting an outline of the German note did not state specifically that he had been asked to obtain the views of the American government. It appeared that he asked if there were any instructions and did so because the American ambassador had been in advance of its completion. According to officials familiar with diplomatic precedent, this was not unusual and it was said today authoritatively that Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, gave to Dr. Anton Meyer, Gerard, before he started for Berlin, an outline of the American note which was not completed until several days later.

It was suggested that Ambassador Gerard, probably realizing that the proposals as made by Germany in the tentative draft would not meet the American viewpoint, asked for instruction with the view that the reply might be modified.

Because the message was somewhat garbled in transmission, officials here did not clearly understand what the ambassador had in mind, but at any rate they believed it desirable to enter into no discussion or negotiation until the proposals were in final form.

In some official quarters there is still hope that the refusal of the American ambassador to discuss concessions may convince the German officials of the earnestness of the Intemperance and War Are Declared Foes of State—Young People Will Declare, "I Will Not Kill," Says Poling—Great Convention Chorus of 1,000 Voices Sing Hallelujah Chorus.

Chicago, July 8.—Moved by stirring speeches of men prominent in church and business life of the South, 300 Southern men and women, delegates to the World's Christian Endeavor convention, in session here today, acknowledged brotherhood with the negro race and determined to extend to it the hand of fellowship.

Out of this idea is to grow the Southern extension committee of the Christian Endeavor, which the Rev. Ira Landrith of Nashville, Tenn., said: "We are going to take the Christian Endeavor work into the negro churches, organize new societies and help millions of blacks to enlightenment. God has placed at our door the greatest opportunity for Christian work that ever came to any missionaries anywhere."

"Until the men of the world rise up and say, 'I will not kill,' nations will war with one another, according to Daniel A. Poling, citizenship superintendent of the United Society of the Christian Endeavor. He declared that neither arbitration treaties nor neutrality agreements will bring everlasting and universal peace."

The message of the Christian Endeavor is patriotic and it is none the less heroic because the words of its fervent expression are taken from the handbook of the prince of peace rather than from the bloody vocabulary of barbarism," said Mr. Poling. "The patriotism of Christian Endeavor is practical and addresses itself to the foes of the state."

These foes are intemperance and war. Against them the young people's movement huris the flower of the world, the youth of the kingdom. Christian Endeavor can and will enroll millions of young people from all sects, colors and nationalities in the peace union which was the vision of President Clark. These millions will proclaim the fulfillment of the sixth commandment; these will declare: "I will not kill."

The great convention chorus, numbering more than a thousand voices, sang the "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's Messiah tonight. The annual message of President Clark, who is absent because of illness, was read at the evening session.

Want Catholic Pros and the Anti-Saloon League to Co-Operate

Atlantic City, N. J., July 8.—Closer co-operation between the Anti-Saloon League forces and those of the Catholic Prohibition league in the fight for nationwide prohibition was indicated in a resolution adopted by the latter organization which was presented to the convention of the Anti-Saloon League of America at tonight's session. The action was said to have been inspired by the Rev. John J. Curran, a Catholic temperance advocate, who in an address before a joint session of the two conventions yesterday declared that he desired to see a change in the Catholic view "which has tended to hold temperance a problem of individual morality rather than of legislation."

The resolution which was received by the Anti-Saloon League delegates with an outburst of enthusiasm, was as follows:

"Resolved, That we, delegates of the Catholic Prohibition League of America, now in session, send hearty greetings to the Anti-Saloon League of America and pledge our earnest cooperation for the total and irrevocable abolition of the liquor traffic and all the evils that accompany it."

A special advisory committee was appointed by the Catholic league whose task will be the enlistment of all Catholic influences throughout the country in support of the principles and programs of the Anti-Saloon League. Major Dan Morgan Smith of Illinois was appointed chairman of this committee. James F. Judge of Scranton, Pa., secretary of the Catholic Prohibition league, was among the speakers at tonight's session who urged united action.

Murray Before Pen Probe.

Austin, Texas, July 8.—Former State Senator W. O. Murray, a member of the penitentiary commission under the Colquitt administration, today testified before the senate penitentiary investigating committee as to the management and affairs of the penal system during his tenure of office. The sessions of the committee, it was announced today, are executive, and nothing is to be given out until the committee completes its report. There are several other witnesses to appear before the committee before the probe of the farms is resumed.

Interest in Land Warfare Centers in Southern Poland, Where Reinforcements to Czar's Troops Have Prevented a Flank Movement on Warsaw—Austrians Admit Withdrawing.

London, July 8.—The Italian navy has suffered its first serious loss, an Austrian submarine having successfully torpedoed the cruiser Amalfi in the narrow waters of the Adriatic. Most of the crew were saved. This is the second allied warship to fall a victim to an Austrian submarine, the French cruiser Leon Gambetta having earlier in the war been caught in the Ionian Sea.

As an offset, it is claimed, a French warship has sunk a German submarine in the channel, while the British admiral claimed tonight that a British submarine had torpedoed a German warship in the Baltic recently, although no details were added to the brief statement made in the Russian communication the day after the attack took place.

All the belligerent powers are rapidly building submarines and it is reported that Austria has nine at Pola. The Italian ships will run serious risks in moving about the waters of the Adriatic, which are well suited to the submarines.

So far as land battles are concerned, interest still centers in Southern Poland, where the Russians, strongly reinforced with both men and guns and with their railroads and the fortresses of Ivanograd and Brest-Litovsk to draw upon, have held up the Austro-German attempt to outflank Warsaw from the southwest. The Austrians tonight made the admission that before superior Russian forces they have withdrawn to the hills to the north of Krakow.

Further heavy fighting must take place in this region, but the Russian military writers express confidence that now any effort by the Teutons to deliver a lightning blow has been discounted and that the grand duke's army will be able to hold its positions and perhaps drive the invaders back.

While this is going on, it is believed that there is little probability of the Germans detaching any part of their eastern armies for a renewed offensive in the west and that if such a move is made it must be undertaken by fresh troops. There already is heavy fighting at several points in the west, notably in the Woerthe district, where the French have regained some of the ground they had lost to the southeast of St. Mihiel and at Couches, where the French have made a further advance toward the village.

Britain Wants U. S. View.

Washington, July 8.—Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the British ambassador, formally applied to the state department today for a definition of the American government's view as to whether English patriotic societies or other unofficial agencies violate neutrality laws in sending subjects of Great Britain from the United States to volunteer in the British army.

Conferences between the department of state and of justice will be held before an answer is given, from which a serious diplomatic controversy may develop. The practice of returning volunteers to England has prevailed since the beginning of the war, and it is said the British government is prepared to register an emphatic protest if the United States

When Asked About Whipping Young Women, Refuses to Reply, Declaring the Question Should Not Be Answered—Is Willing to Go On Into Night Session, but Recess Is Taken.

New York, July 8.—The jury which is to pass on the sanity of Harry K. Thaw had an opportunity to study him for seven hours today under the cross-examination of attorneys for the state who are trying to prove he is suffering from paranoia and should be sent back to Matteawan insane asylum.

Every incident of his life—from his school days to his marriage to Evelyn Nesbit, from the slaying of Stanford White to his trials on the charge of murder and his life at Matteawan—was thrust before him in an effort to let the jury observe his mental attitude.

For the greater part of the ordeal, Thaw seemed self-contained, but at times he became palpably nervous and on one occasion showed signs of anger. He was disposed to answer questions at length, and often made somewhat rambling, hesitating legal arguments, which Deputy Attorney General Cook, his principal cross-examiner, made no effort to stop. At other times he answered in brief, concise sentences, but often with a peculiar enunciation which was difficult to understand.

Thaw said he was ready to go on for a suggested night session when an adjournment was taken, but his counsel objected. As he stepped down from the stand, a dozen spectators rushed forward to congratulate him on the showing he had made.

His exhibition of irritation came when Mr. Cook asked him to tell what Evelyn Nesbit had said to him on the subject of his whipping young women. Saying that he could not remember, without reference to the record of his first trial, he was told that it was not available.

"Why not?" he snapped. "Mr. Jerome always had the record." Thaw, leaning forward in his seat said excitedly: "You would not want me to answer the question."

"You, you should not," retorted Thaw.

"It is not of a delusional nature." "It is perfect nonsense. You will not advance your case if I were you. I would not ask any more about that story."

Thaw Subsequently Denied That He Had Ever Whipped Young Women and That He Had Ever Had a Lover.

Thaw, who had been in the courtroom since the beginning of his trial, had been surprised at his trial, but had been disclosed after the main trial.

"I object to his name having been concealed when he was rich, and made public after he died a bankrupt," he said.

"What was your defense at your first trial?" asked Mr. Cook. "The first trial was primarily to get the facts of the case before the jury," Thaw replied. "It was on the plea of insanity at the time of the act, but the plea of self-defense was also put in as otherwise we could not get some of the facts before the jury. I don't think you knew that, Mr. Cook."

Thaw Will Resume the Stand Tomorrow.

Katy Manager is Visiting in Waco

W. A. Webb, vice president and general manager of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railway of Texas, is in the city for a few days, a guest of A. T. Clifton, a director of the road. Mr. Webb says there is no significance in his visit, other than the desire to renew old acquaintanceship formed during his long residence here when he was general manager of the Texas Central.

When that road was absorbed by the Katy, Mr. Webb retained his position as manager of the Texas Central lines under the Katy system. He was later chosen general manager of the Katy lines in Texas and was last year made vice president.

President J. J. Hutchison and a number of directors of the Young Men's Business League were guests of Mr. Webb at luncheon yesterday at the Higgins hotel.

Greenville Woman Injured in Accident

Mrs. Lula Aikens suffered a fractured wrist and E. Aikens her husband, several minor bruises when a car in which they were going to their home at Greenville, overturned yesterday afternoon. They had been to San Antonio in the car and were leaving the city through Waco on their way home when in turning a sharp curve the car hit the curb and overturned, pinning them underneath.

The car was only slightly injured from the accident.

Mrs. Aikens was resting easily last night and will probably be able to continue the journey to their home this afternoon.

EXPLOSION ON MINNEHAHA MAY HAVE BEEN HOT BOMB

Steamer Afire is Now Speeding to Halifax and Atlantic Transport Line Officials Are Endeavoring to Find Whether Man Who Attacked Morgan Was Responsible—Has Ammunition on Board.

BELIEVED HE HAD NO ACCOMPLICES

Theory Abandoned When Police Get Hold of Letters to Holt From Friends—Many Newspaper Clippings Which Are Found Relating to Murder and Insanity Clinch the Belief That He Was the Missing Muenster.

New York, July 8.—While the steamship Minnehaha, afire at sea with 15,000 tons of munitions aboard, was speeding to Halifax, N. S., tonight, the Atlantic Transport line officials and authorities here were bending every effort to learn if the blaze caused by an explosion could possibly have been the work of Frank Holt, the assailant of J. P. Morgan, who had given warning that a steamship would sink in midocean on July 7.

The Minnehaha was due to reach Halifax tomorrow morning. Captain Claret's latest messages said the fire was under control. It started late yesterday from an explosion in a forward hold, far away from the ammunition, which was stored aft. Although Captain Claret did not say so, line officials here believe that he had picked up the wireless warning sent to all ships and had caused a search to be made to ascertain if there were any bombs aboard.

The fact that no further word was received tonight at the offices of the Atlantic Transport line was taken to indicate that the ship was making good progress. Officials of the line awaited anxiously for a report from Captain Claret as to the origin of the explosion, because of the Holt warning. Officers of other lines which now have boats at sea were equally interested in hearing Claret's report.

The Minnehaha left here July 4 for London. She carried no passengers. Her crew numbered nearly 150.

The possible fate of the Minnehaha overshadowed all other developments in the case of the man who set off the capital bomb, then shot J. P. Morgan and finally killed himself.

The theory that Holt had accomplices because of the large amount of money he was supposed to have spent was almost abandoned by the police tonight upon the receipt here of much of the dead man's correspondence. It came from Ithaca and consisted of letters written to Holt by friends in English, German, French and Spanish.

After Guy Scull, secretary to Police Commissioner Woods, had gone over half of the letters, he announced he had found nothing in the correspondence to indicate that Holt had an accomplice.

U. S. Navy Takes Charge German Wireless Station

Washington, July 8.—American naval officers today took charge of the powerful wireless plant of the Atlantic Communication company at Sayville, L. I., which will be operated by the government until the close of the European war to insure against violations of neutrality. This is one of the two stations in the United States maintaining direct communication with Germany; the other at Tuckerton, N. J., has been under control of the navy department since last fall.

Captain Wm. Bullard, superintendent of the naval service took over the Sayville station. He is empowered to make all preliminary arrangements for the collection of tolls and management of the plant and will use the station in accordance with the plan was German-owned and controlled by the imperial German government. Under such conditions, Secretary of the Navy, Mr. D. N. Y., station a license would be given the navy department by an executive order, issued soon after the war began. It is understood here the protest filed by the Sayville owners is merely a formal action.

Although there have been reports of unauthorized messages being sent from Sayville to be picked up by submarines or other vessels at sea in violation of the presence of naval censors, charges of violations of neutrality probably will be taken over the plant to the navy department. Secretary of the navy said the action had become necessary on account of the refusal of Redfield of the department to make a temporary arrangement.

In a letter to the navy, Mr. Redfield said the service took over the station in accordance with the plan was German-owned and controlled by the imperial German government. Under such conditions, Secretary of the Navy, Mr. D. N. Y., station a license would be given the navy department by an executive order, issued soon after the war began. It is understood here the protest filed by the Sayville owners is merely a formal action.

Foreman King Ranch Kills One Bandit and Wounds Another

Houston, Tex., July 8.—Engaging in a duel with five Mexican cattle rustlers, Frank Martin, foreman of the King ranch, killed one of the Mexicans and wounded another when he came upon them driving away cattle near the Wilcox-Cameron county line late Wednesday. The Mexicans upon sighting Martin signalled him to stop and opened fire when he advanced. Seeking cover behind his horse, Martin returned the fire with the result stated. The three unharmed Mexicans made a get-away carrying the wounded man with them, but leaving behind the dead man, who has not been identified.

Earlier reports said two Mexicans had been killed.

Bandits Re-Appear.

Brownsville, Tex., July 8.—The band of Mexican bandits which has been raiding Texas ranches on the border west of Brownsville, was reported to have again appeared about forty miles west of here and to have resumed their depredations. Sheriff W. T. Vann left here tonight in an automobile to join posses trying to run down the gang.

complexe. Secretary Scull said most of the letters were of a business nature and were dated about 1906.

With the letter were newspaper clippings referring to the most part to murder and insanity. This, Scull pointed out, seemed to clinch the fact that Holt was Erich Muenster, if nothing else did. He pointed to the statement of Professor Munsterberg of Harvard university that Muenster was always deeply interested in insanity. The police breathed easier today after they learned from an explosives expert that Holt had made but one purchase of dynamite from 1906 to 1907, the 60 per cent kind. The company said it was in error when it stated yesterday that it had sold Holt the 40 per cent grade. Late today Holt's body was shipped from Hemenstead to Dallas, Texas, where, it was announced, he would be buried.

The inquest into Holt's death, which was to have been held today, was postponed to tomorrow by Justice of the Peace Jones, owing to the absence of Jeremiah O'Ryan, the keeper of the jail, who was detailed to guard certain from O'Ryan why the door of Holt's cell was left open on the night the latter committed suicide.

To Be Buried at Dallas.

Dallas, Tex., July 8.—It was announced this afternoon that the body of Frank Holt, assailant of J. P. Morgan, dynamiter of the national capital and suicide in the Glencoe jail, former instructor in Cornell University would be brought to Dallas for burial. No funeral arrangements had been made, but it is very probable that the burial will take place tomorrow in an Oakland cemetery. According to reports here, the body will be taken in charge of the Brewer Undertaking company.

Decision to bring the body here for burial was reached Thursday morning following a conference between J. E. Cockrell, Mrs. Holt and her father, Rev. Dr. O. E. Sensabaugh, former announcement said that burial would be at Ithaca, N. Y.

Mrs. Holt is standing the unusual ordeal remarkably well. She was today to see visitors.

FOUR DRINKS EACH DAY IS SUFFICIENT

PROPERLY TAKEN WILL DRIVE AWAY HALF THE COMMON ILLS OF CITY PEOPLE.

Nature's most wonderful draught, from a medical standpoint, is a tea-spoonful of liquid Vitalitas in a half glass of either hot or cold water; nothing known means more for the elimination of unhealthy bodily conditions.

The man or woman who suffers dyspepsia, or its train of ills, who has rheumatism or nervous disorders, will find quick relief in Vitalitas and should find cure in its continued use. It is estimated that one-third of city people are indisposed all the time and a large per cent of those are sufferers of chronic disorders. They are particularly subject to ailments of stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels and blood. Vitalitas is extracted out of the earth. It is wholly and purely a natural medicine and it contains mineral properties and natural forces upon which health and life depend. Marvelous cures are constantly being reported from the use of Vitalitas. It will do you good.

URGENT U.S. TO TAKE ACTION IN MEXICO

SUGGESTIONS RECEIVED FROM CONSULAR OFFICES BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT.

WOULD ALLOW BUT ONE MONTH

Famine and Inability of the Military Forces to Restore Peace Cause Serious Situation.

Washington, July 5.—Urgent suggestions that the United States wait no longer than another month before taking some decisive action to restore law and order in Mexico, have been forwarded to the state department by several American consular officers in the northern part of the republic. All these reports, it was learned tonight, have been forwarded to President Wilson at Cornish, N. H., after being carefully studied by state department officials here.

Threatened famine and the inability of the contending military factions to restore peace and establish a government that could be recognized by the United States are dwelt upon by the consular officers. Conditions more serious than ever troubled Mexico have been predicted unless the United States lend a hand quickly. Recognition of some element which may set up a strong government with the moral support of the United States is the solution usually urged.

Reports of food shortage continued to reach the state department and the Red Cross today from various parts of Mexico. One dispatch from northeastern Mexico stated that with the railway cut again, supplies in that section would last only a few days. The message added:

"It will be but a few weeks before the northeast of Mexico will be dependent upon the United States for the lives of all non-combatants. They are actually in danger of starvation. Children had died in large numbers, it was said."

Admiral Howard reported to the navy department that quiet prevailed on the west Mexican coast.

Will Oppose Extradition.
Washington, July 8.—Notice that any attempt to extradite General Victoriano Huerta to Mexico will be opposed, has been given by the state department to Governor Ferguson of Texas and to both the Carranza and Villa leaders. Governor Ferguson recently referred to the state department a formal application for the extradition of Huerta on various criminal charges. Later an informal request for the extradition of Huerta was made by the Carranza agency here.

It became known tonight that the department takes the position that there is no recognized government in Mexico and no assurance that Huerta would be given a fair trial and that even if there were warrant for extradition, the federal government would be obliged to oppose any effort to turn him over to his enemies.

takes the position that it is illegal. The return of indictments at San Francisco against persons charged with enlisting recruits for the British army is said to have precipitated the ambassador's action.

According to the British contention, it is unjustly discriminatory to interfere with the transportation of volunteers who are generally enlisted on American soil when no objection has been made to notifications by consuls to reservists.

Officials of the department of justice explained today that they have had no understanding with the state department in regard to recruiting. They pointed out, however, that the criminal code plainly prohibits the enlistment of "any foreigner" into the United States to fight against the people of a friendly nation.

The efforts of the department, it was declared, have not in any instance been directed against volunteers returning to their own country to fight, but against organized efforts to induce such to return. A high official said this afternoon that after the recent arrest of representatives of the Montenegro government for violating the law, the 145 men they had recruited for the Montenegrin army were allowed to proceed.

Capt. Jack Long Dies At Daughter's Home

Capt. Jack Long, 74 years old, died at 1:30 this (Friday) morning at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Charles B. Ivy, 1601 Herring avenue. He had been a resident of McLennan county since 1880, and was a member of the Clubmen club, United Confederate Veterans. Capt. Long was a native of Arkansas, and enlisted in the Confederate army from that state. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Mrs. Ivy, from whose home the funeral will take place at 5 o'clock this afternoon. Rev. C. T. Caldwell officiating. Members of Pat Cleburne camp will attend in a body.

STORM VICTIMS NOW NUMBER TWENTY-SEVEN

WIND AND RAIN PLAY MANY TRICKS IN AND AROUND CINCINNATI.

Two Steamships Go Down—Search for Ten Persons Who Are Missing Continues.

Cincinnati, Ohio, July 8.—Up to 12 o'clock tonight, the bodies of twenty-seven persons, victims of the wind and rain storm which struck Cincinnati and vicinity last night, had been recovered. Five bodies were found tonight. These included the bodies of Mrs. Louis Cohen and her two children Edna and Mamie, and Haskin Romy and his 6-year-old son.

The police believe ten persons are missing and estimates place the property loss at $1,000,000.

At 9:30 last night the storm broke a hour later the city and its suburbs lay in almost total darkness, the telephone system paralyzed, its street car service entirely suspended and its citizens groaning in ascertained the toll the storm had exacted.

Two steamships had gone down in the Ohio river, one having hit a bridge pier, while the other was overturned by the terrific force of the wind; probably a half dozen left churning in the water, and the full extent of the damage was ascertained late today it was found that new houses in the city had escaped damage.

The streets of the downtown district were crisscrossed with debris and glass from windows, while in the residence section and in the suburbs wagon and automobile traffic was impossible, hundreds of trees uprooted and thrown across the thoroughfares.

Terrace Park, a suburb, a special feature of the day, and a better baby show also attracted hundreds of visitors. A parade in the morning in which beautifully decorated floats and automobiles were shown was an attractive part of the day's program. Athletic games, speaking by several men of statewide prominence, a baseball game between Riesel and Perry and various carnival features also helped to entertain the big crowd.

The addresses were made in the afternoon in the tabernacle in the center of town. J. F. Burton of Riesel, cashier of the Central Texas Exchange National bank and chairman for McLennan county of the Texas bankers' warehouse movement; Senator A. R. McCollum, James Hays Quarles, news editor of the Waco Tribune of Waco, and D. M. Reedy, twice representative to the state legislature from Smith county and a leader in the warehouse movement, were the speakers.

Mr. Reedy explained thoroughly the benefits to be derived by the farmer from the warehouse law and Mr. Quarles spoke in behalf of the A. & M. separation amendment.

The Riesel Concert band, composed of local talent, and an exceptionally good musical organization, furnished music for the occasion.

Hundreds of visitors from all over the county, especially from Waco and Marlin, attended the celebration. Trains brought big crowds and many came in automobiles.

Among the prominent people from Waco who were present were Senator A. R. McCollum, E. F. Drake, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce; W. W. Wood, editor of the Waco Tribune; Harry M. Bain, vice president of the Waco Morning News; Sheriff S. S. Fleming, who was a marshal in the parade; Judge Joe W. Fren of the corporation court; J. F. Baker, county clerk; John Reed, county tax assessor; John McNamara, county attorney; Edgar Mann, city attorney at Marlin, also were visitors.

The following awards were made:

Cattle—Jersey male, Fischer and Ainsworth first, G. R. Strange second; Jersey cow, B. W. Ainsworth first, Jersey second; heifer under 2 years, J. Dandy first, B. W. Ainsworth second.

Hogs—Duroc boar, 1 year or over, W. T. Sharp; Duroc boar, under 1 year, J. W. Fisher; Poland China, D. L. Jordan; Berkshire boar, B. W. Ainsworth; Berkshire sow, B. W. Ainsworth.

Two Boys Are Paroled.
Dewey Duncan and Ira Deaton, boys who had pleaded guilty to simple assault in the county court, were released yesterday. County Judge George N. Denton transferred their cases to the juvenile docket and paroled them. They are two of the boys charged with attacking A. D. Adams at the Cotton Palace, following the Elks' cabaret luncheon some time ago.

UGH! A CASE OF RASTY CALOMEL

IT SALIVATES! IT MAKES YOU SICK AND YOU MAY LOSE A DAY'S WORK.

You're bilious, sluggish, constipated and believe you need vile, dangerous calomel to start your liver and clean your bowels.

Here's my guarantee! Ask your druggist for a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without griping or making you sick, I want you to go back to the store and get your money.

Take calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Take a spoonful of harmless vegetable Dodson's Liver Tonic tonight and wake up feeling great. It's perfectly harmless, so give it to your children any time. It can't salivate, so let them eat anything afterwards.

RIESEL STOCK SHOW BRILLIANT SUCCESS

NEARLY 3,000 VISITORS ATTEND ANNUAL LIVESTOCK AND AGRICULTURAL EXHIBITION.

Parade in Morning and Speaking in Afternoon—Athletic Games and Carnival.

Riesel, Texas, July 8.—Riesel put on gala attire today and entertained some 2,500 visitors, the occasion being the annual stock show.

Y. M. B. L. TEAMS MEET AT LUNCHEON TODAY

STRENUOUS CAMPAIGN PLANNED TO RAISE MONEY FOR ENTERTAINING SHERIFFS.

W. W. Naman Appointed Chairman of Central Committee to Succeed W. H. Hoffmann.

The central committee and teams of the Young Men's Business League appointed at the meeting of the directors last week to raise funds for entertaining the sheriff's convention which meets here Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week will meet at a luncheon in the league rooms at 12:30 today, when territory will be assigned to the various teams. Immediately after the luncheon the teams will go out over the city for a strenuous campaign to raise the necessary funds to give the entertainment promised the sheriffs when they were invited at Corpus Christi to hold their next meeting in Waco.

W. W. Naman, one of the most efficient of Y. M. B. L. workers, has been named as chairman of the central committee, succeeding W. H. Hoffmann, who was forced to resign on account of a rush of work at the postoffice incident to getting out the quarterly report. To fill out the central committee, C. P. Link has been added. The central committee is composed of the following: W. W. Naman, chairman; R. E. L. Montgomery, Frank Tiley, R. V. McClain and C. P. Link. President J. J. Hutchinson, who is ex-officio a member of all committees, is putting in a great amount of hard work on the present campaign.

Members of the teams who are especially urged to be present at the luncheon at 12:30 are:

Team No. 1—George Tiley, Frank Tiley and E. N. Oliver.

Team No. 2—W. W. Woodson, Forrest Goodman and L. S. Henry.

Team No. 3—S. B. Price, Sam Nix and John Reed.

Team No. 4—W. T. Wheeler, John Dollins and A. D. Adams.

Team No. 5—Robert Frazier, W. J. Geisler and B. C. Nettles.

Team No. 6—F. A. Gildersleeve, P. A. Duncan and Charles Linke.

Team No. 7—Frank Trau, Ben Bakeman and The G. Steele.

Team No. 8—H. M. Cox, J. M. Pendland and R. J. Windrow.

Team No. 9—Boone Crow, E. A. Weiler and E. Nelson.

Team No. 10—A. E. Ingram, Leslie Stegall and C. N. Smith.

Sheriff S. S. Fleming, upon whom the responsibility for entertaining the convention has been placed by the organization, is forced to be out of the city until Wednesday. He has called upon the Young Men's Business League to take charge of arrangements. A large amount of work is necessary to prepare for the convention, which is the last and one of the most important of the many to be entertained by Waco this year.

The program for entertainment of the sheriffs is progressing rapidly under the hands of the Y. M. B. L. committees, skilled by long practice in providing hospitality for the guests of the city. The list includes a big chicken dinner, the piece de resistance promised at the Corpus Christi meeting of the sheriffs' association. A Dutch luncheon at the Deutsche Central Verein garden has also been arranged. Automobile rides over the city will be provided for all visitors, and several special entertainments for members of the party will be announced.

A special called meeting of the central committee was held in the Y. M. B. L. rooms yesterday afternoon, at which the call for a meeting of the teams at the luncheon today was issued.

Ad Club Committee Plans Next Meeting

The educational committee of the Waco Ad club was entertained at luncheon at 4 o'clock last night at the Waco Ad club house by the State House by L. H. Henry and a program arranged for the meeting next Thursday night. W. V. Crawford was selected to lead the discussion, the nature of a report of the Chicago convention, the phase being chosen because of the majority of the members being interested in it.

Members who attended the convention will be prepared to answer any questions and several of them will speak, following Mr. Crawford. At future sessions, it is planned to take up the work of the educational and vigilance sections at the Chicago meeting, and it is also planned to have Dean J. L. Kesler of Baylor university deliver the address in the near future that marks the opening day of the Chicago convention at the Austin Avenue Baptist church.

U. S. WILL NOT DISCUSS NOTE WITH GERMAN GOVERNMENT

United States and bring about modification. There are intimations from Berlin, however, that officials there do not believe the American government will insist on the position it took in its first note and that public opinion in the United States favors compromising the issue. Some high officials in Berlin, it is said, are of the opinion that public sentiment in the United States on the question of separating passengers and contraband traffic supports Mr. Bryan's view as expressed since his resignation. This and other phases of the question gave the situation tonight an atmosphere of doubt and uncertainty which has not had since the indications of several days ago that factors were at work in Berlin for a favorable settlement of the controversy.

Note Ready for Delivery.
Berlin, July 9.—(Via London, 2:50 a. m.)—The German minister of foreign affairs, Gottlieb Jagow, has informed the Associated Press that the dispatch of the German note is immediately impending. A few changes, he said, would be perhaps necessary, after which the reply would be delivered to the American ambassador.

Herr von Jagow asked to be excused from commenting in advance on the note but discussed the difficulties under which the negotiations had been conducted owing to the slowness and incompleteness of communications between Germany and the United States and the "obstruction" to the free exchange of news between the German and American press and public.

"See," said the minister, "that the text of the note of the imperial government presented through Ambassador Gerard regarding the reopening of the direct cable to the United States was published by the American papers on June 14. The American public has thus been given an opportunity to learn of the proposals of the German government with reference to this."

"Germany proposed to pay the entire expense of repairing the cable and putting it into operation, the president of the United States to be entitled to appoint a censor at the American end of the cable in order to supervise all messages transmitted over it. You will have noticed that Germany proposed to permit news to be sent over this cable uncensored so far as it was unprejudicial to the military plans of the campaign."

"The American public also has learned that the British government for obvious reasons has taken no notice of the proposals. Great Britain apparently does not want the people of neutral countries to be informed in an impartial way on the events of this great war. The reasons are not far to seek. That is why at the beginning of the war Great Britain and attitudes of one another."

Notice to Subscribers.

Delivery routes to the City of Waco are in the hands of independent carriers, who buy their papers at wholesale prices. Subscribers are urged to pay their bills promptly, as the carriers are not to be paid until they receive payment from subscribers. This margin of profit is such that they cannot afford to extend credit, except month by month. They are not required, and they are advised against, delivering the paper to anyone who does not pay in accordance with the above subscription terms. These carriers are all earnest, hard working men and they will appreciate any courtesy shown them.

The Morning News should be delivered throughout the city of Waco by 6:30 a. m. and subscribers failing to receive their paper at that time will confer a favor by phoning the Circulation Department, both phones 1152, and a copy will be sent by special messenger.

Any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing or reputation of any person, firm or corporation which may appear in the columns of the Morning News will be gladly corrected upon its being brought to the attention of the management.

CARE OF OAKWOOD CEMETERY.

In the communication published in the Morning News of yesterday, the directors and advisory committee of the Oakwood Cemetery Association make out a strong case against the passage of the ordinance now pending before the city commission which seeks to revoke the authority conferred upon that body and place the control of the cemetery back in the hands of the city authorities. And in the protest against the passage of the ordinance we trust the directors and stockholders of the cemetery association will be successful.

The people of Waco had a fair demonstration, prior to 1898, of what political control of this burial ground means. The cemetery was neglected, the money from the sale of lots was poorly handled, and not until the existing ordinance was passed and the permanent association formed was the cemetery properly taken care of and the interests of those who had purchased lots there for the burial of their dead properly safeguarded.

For seventeen years the women of the city have labored diligently in behalf of the cemetery, building up a permanent endowment fund, conserving all the resources and keeping the grounds in good shape in the meantime. Six thousand dollars has been invested in new land and the remaining resources, $25,000 are invested in safe securities, the interest from which is employed in the upkeep of the cemetery. This fund ought not, in our opinion, to be disturbed, for once that fund comes under political control just that soon will it begin to disappear. Under such a scheme the cemetery would soon be without any endowment and the graves of the loved ones of hundreds of families in this city would be without protection against the ravages of the future and Oakwood deteriorate from a first-class cemetery to a neglected burial ground. The association has plans in mind for increasing the permanent endowment fund, other than through the sale of lots, and these plans are being explained to the stockholders of the association.

If the directors of the association should feel themselves unequal to the task of caring for the cemetery, and should they confess they were in a dilemma—as some members of the city government have suggested—and come and ask the commission for assistance in getting out of it, the proffer of aid would be very timely. But the cemetery association is making good progress. And while it is not able, through the proceeds from the permanent fund, to keep the cemetery in as fine shape as it would like, the fund is constantly growing and as time passes the proceeds for the upkeep of Oakwood will be larger. There is no general demand for any action on the part of the commission relative to Oakwood cemetery at this time and the future welfare of that institution demands that it be kept out of politics—a policy that has enabled a permanent fund of $25,000 to be built up in the last seventeen years.

If the Oakwood Cemetery Association had failed in its work we doubt if the commission would be anxious to assume the load. But that it has succeeded and accumulated a big cash fund when previous political management resulted in a loss is conclusive argument, we take it, that the commission should leave the control and management of the cemetery where it is today.

The Russians are making an easy home-run, but they are not winning that Galician game, according to the New Orleans States.

KEY TO RURAL DEVELOPMENT.

We do not know John Fields, editor of the Oklahoma Farm Journal, but from an address he delivered before the conference of banking and farming interests at Chicago yesterday we are sure he has a level head on him. The key to the solution of the rural problem lies largely in building up the rural schools, he says, and while this will not cover the whole situation it will go a long way in that direction.

"The concentration of facilities for transportation, communication and education has built cities and towns at the expense of agricultural development," said Mr. Fields. "The diffusion of these facilities among all of those who live on the land and farm it will build the whole community, and there will be agricultural development to keep pace with the growth of commerce."

"There is a real problem of community building every banker should study. Increased production, more profits from farming will not solve it. The prosperous farmers are those who are lured from the land—not by the city's bright lights, but by the city's well organized schools."

"The foundation of our government is the average intelligence of all its citizens. As a measure of self-protection, if nothing higher, the state should spend at least as much money to advance opportunities for elementary education of all children as it does to provide facilities for higher education of a very few."

"If you would build the whole community, begin with the country schools. You will find that many other problems, such as the tenant question, will be solved."

For the rural schools to accomplish the most they must include something of agriculture, domestic science, horticulture, stock raising and the like in their curricula, instruction that will enable the boys and girls to learn how to work and live on the farm and make as much money and find as much happiness in so doing as if they lived in the city. By inducing the pupils to keep an accurate account of everything they expend in making their little model crops in connection with their school work, keep close records on butter-making, pig feeding and the like, they learn the lesson of thrift without any preaching and that is probably the most effective way. And the lesson of thrift learned by the boys and girls of the farm today will enable them to abolish, in due course of time, the tenant and credit systems, the curse of farm life today. Intensive farming will enable them to make a living on a few acres and a few acres of land are within reach of the individual of small means, even though the land be quoted at a high figure.

It is gratifying to note in this connection that Texas is at last making rapid strides in the development of her rural schools. The compulsory school attendance law, the million-dollar appropriation for the development of the rural schools of the state, rural school supervision and the like are all steps in the right direction. The schools are co-operating with the Boys' Corn and Pig Club and the Girls' Canning Club movements and we are gradually learning that to develop the rural communities we must keep the boys and girls on the farm, and to keep them on the farm we must make farm life more attractive generally and more remunerative financially. Better school facilities will be powerful factors in accomplishing these ends and Texas is getting ready to provide those facilities.

We notice that pressure is being brought to bear upon the Hon. John D. Robinson, judge of the district court at Belton, to make the race for congress from this district next year for the vacancy that will be left by the refusal of Mr. Henry to stand for reelection to the house. Judge Robinson is very close to Governor Ferguson, personally and politically. The governor will be a candidate for re-election if he lives. Mr. Henry is seeking to have the governor appoint him for the United States senate. Will there be a Ferguson line-up on all the offices from senator to constable?

NATIONAL TRAINING OF CITIZENS.

With difficulty could the importance of the tardy decision of the United States to assume responsibility for training immigrants for citizenship be over-emphasized, declares the Christian Science Monitor. The secretary of the department of labor is to be credited with a statesmanlike decision and purpose back of his plan for use of the bureau of immigration and the bureau of naturalization to accomplish the desired end. That he has the president back of him in his policy was shown by the presence of the chief executive at the famous Philadelphia meeting at which he defined for the benefit of several thousand immigrant citizens just what Americanism means.

Hitherto any formal instruction which alien children and youth may have had in the history, ideals and political customs of the United States has been left to the day schools, and it has not been without much wholesome effect. Instruction of adults in the same subjects has been left to publicly supported night schools or to private agencies, like social settlements, churches and the Y. M. C. A. For the fine work done with comparatively limited resources by these volunteers there can be nothing but praise; but it is too partial, too uncertain in its status and too dependent on philanthropy to meet the needs that a state like Massachusetts or Pennsylvania presents today.

At last it has dawned upon Washington and officials at the seat of power that the nation which welcomes the newcomer must do something more than pass him through Ellis Island. He not only must be accepted, but often be placed where he may take root and become informed as to what citizenship implies, if he cares to assume it. Having decided voluntarily to become naturalized, the immigrant hereafter will be able to call on the bureau of the department of labor for any education in civics which he may need; and whether he wills it or no, he cannot longer escape having it borne in on him that citizenship in the republic is something to be desired and earned, and not to be gained by the automatic workings of any so-called law, physical or legislative.

The nation in carrying out this program of education, no doubt, will seek the co-operation of all agencies, public and private, that have been organized to meet a demand that the government hitherto has not felt any responsibility for meeting. It will have a cordial response from most of them, since for a long time opinion among social workers and educators has been sure that the nation could not trust longer to the individual initiative of the immigrant. He must be induced to seek the franchise and be trained to fit himself to use it.

A movement of this kind, backed by public opinion that from henceforth is to be acutely concerned about the matter, may run off on tangents not now dreamed of. For instance, it may come to pass in due time, when the public says "Aye," that native as well as foreign-born persons must prove fitness for citizenship on some other basis than an adult age and a "mere desire" to be a citizen. Capacity as well as desire, training as well as longing, selection and not automatic endowment, may some day be the standards of the franchise, quite irrespective of race, sex or previous condition of servitude.

If Justice Hendricks' attitude in forcing Evelyn Thaw's presence in the court room can be taken as a criterion it begins to appear that the court will refuse to permit Thaw to go free, even if the jury should find him sane.

TEXAS MAY GET A PELLAGRA STATION

STATE HEALTH DEPARTMENT AT AUSTIN VISITED BY DR. GOLDBERGER.

U. S. Department Expert Giving His Entire Time to Study of the Disease.

Austin, Texas, July 8.—The state health department was visited today by Dr. Joseph Goldberger of the United States public health service, who is devoting his entire time under that service to the study of pellagra. The investigation of pellagra was started in 1907 and last year Dr. Goldberger was made chief of this department and since then several stations for treating the disease have been established in Georgia, the Carolinas and at Jackson, Miss., which are conducted under the supervision of Dr. Goldberger.

According to Dr. W. A. Davis, secretary of the state board of health, efforts will be made to have a pellagra station established in Texas. The board will attempt to gather statistics from the state so as to interest the public health service to such an extent that an expert may be retained for the purpose of making a special study of the disease in this state.

Interceded for Drouilhet.

Austin, July 8.—Rev. Father Patrick A. Finney, president of the University of Dallas, today interceded with Governor Ferguson for a pardon for Raymond Drouilhet, convicted from Dallas county and given ten years in the penitentiary for the killing of his wife.

Drouilhet has already served two years of the sentence and an application for a pardon was filed with the board of pardons just before former Governor Colquhoun retired from office. It appears Drouilhet and his wife became involved in a quarrel and he struck her on the kitchen sink and broke her neck. No action was taken by the governor.

Insurance Companies Protest.

Austin, July 8.—Many of the insurance companies of the state are protesting vigorously to the commissioner of Insurance and Banking against the recent ruling by the commissioner that state banks must discontinue the practice of cashing and discounting insurance premium notes when they appear before the state board of insurance. One company wrote the commissioner that if this ruling is not revoked it may be forced to go out of business. The commissioner said today that he believed the ruling was sound and that such notes are not a proper asset for a bank to have in its possession.

Much Dynamiting of Fish.

Austin, July 8.—Violations of the law prohibiting the dynamiting of fish in the streams of the state are getting quite numerous, according to information received by the game, fish and oyster department. Rigid instructions were given by Game Warden Goodfellow to the field department to institute prosecutions in every instance where it is found that the law has been violated. Reports have also been received by the department here that the killing of fish by dynamite is being carried on along the Mexican border and an investigation has been instituted.

Ferguson Won't Act.

Austin, July 8.—There is little chance of Governor Ferguson being required to act on the application for a requisition for General Huerta, in view of the probability of the federal prosecution for alleged violation of the neutrality laws being abandoned. Governor Ferguson does not care to discuss the situation at the present time, believing that the developments within the next few days will obviate the necessity of any action being taken. He will not care to discuss the received information from Washington has not been disclosed.

To Survey Old King's Highway.

Austin, July 8.—Governor Ferguson today appointed Maj. V. M. Vivley of Houston to survey the old King's Highway from Nacogdoches to San Antonio. The special session of the Thirty-fourth legislature made an appropriation of $5,000 for this work, the money to be expended under the supervision of the governor.

Major Vivley was in Austin today and conferred with the governor. The work of surveying the old road is to begin soon.

Captain Sanders at Austin.

Austin, July 8.—Capt. J. J. Sanders of the state ranger force, stationed at Del Rio, was here today conferring with the governor and the adjutant general. Captain Sanders has been working on the border with the British Mexican raiders who are reported to be operating in that section. He said that the present ranger force is totally insufficient to cope with the situation.

Pigeons Destroy Grain.

Austin, July 8.—White-winged pigeons, which come from Mexico in large droves, are destroying the grain crops of Hidalgo and adjacent counties, according to letters received by the game, fish and oyster commissioner, who has been requested to permit the killing of the pigeons. The attorney general has been asked for a ruling.

Wireless for Point Isabel.

Galveston, July 8.—The United States navy collier Jason, which arrived here today from Norfolk, brought equipment for a wireless telegraph station which is to be established by the navy department at Point Isabel. The equipment will be landed here and will be forwarded to Brownsville by rail. Damage to the Jason's steering gear prevented the collier from coming to the docks and the wireless equipment will be brought in from the roads by barge.

Wheat from Galveston.

Galveston, July 8.—What is expected to be the first cargo of 1915 wheat to be exported from any American port is being loaded on board the British steamship Maltby today. She will take approximately 216,000 bushels. The Maltby is the first ship to take grain from the new Sunset elevator which replaced the one destroyed by fire Nov. 17 last.

BITTER FEELING IN MARLIN CAMPAIGN

NEAR APPROACH OF PROHIBITION ELECTION IS CAUSE OF HEATED DISCUSSIONS.

All Phases of Saloon Business Talked. Pros Attack the Negro Vote.

Marlin, Tex., July 8.—The near approach of the local option election day causes Marlin to be undergoing the dissensions and disturbances characteristic of such contests, the topic in the homes, on the streets, in all public places now being discussed being the saloon question, all aspects of the business being brought into the fight.

Bitter feeling is coming into play in some places on account of the refusal of the state board of health to make the anti-saloon amendment a condition of affairs at Marlin, as the pros spent the morning in that town getting statements directly contradicting what the anti-saloonists had published.

The warmer the contention the more pros get into the fight, and it is now conceded by leading men on both sides that the question will probably be decided by a very small majority.

The pros are now attacking the negro vote, claiming that as the county officials are elected through a "white man's primary," the questions of issue like the present should be settled in the same manner, while the German and foreign vote is being made the object of attack by both sides.

Wedding at Marlin.

Marlin, Tex., July 8.—A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. A. G. Kunze this evening when her daughter, Miss Gussie Kunze, was married to Mr. A. T. Cheaney, a prominent business man of this city. Rev. C. G. Howard, pastor of the First Baptist church officiating.

Marlin Tax Rate 1.47 1/2.

Marlin, Tex., July 8.—The city council has decreed the tax rate this year shall be $1.47 1/2 cents on the $100 property valuation, which is a rate of 32 1/2c due principally to the bond issues recently voted. The raise has caused absolutely no complaint, other than the surprise expressed that it was not raised to the $1.50 limit.

Wacoans at Marlin.

Marlin, Tex., July 8.—The following people are registered from Waco at the Marlin hotels: Mrs. Mary E. Miller, J. M. Taylor, Mrs. J. M. Taylor, Miss Susie Jones, L. M. Baker, N. B. Peaman, Mrs. W. M. Peaman, J. J. Cline, S. B. Dibble and J. F. Franklin Jr.

Sheriff Plott to Galveston.

Marlin, Tex., July 8.—Sheriff C. H. Plott left Marlin on the midnight train for Galveston, where he goes on business connected with his official duties.

San Saba Boosters on Tour.

Temple, Tex., July 8.—San Saba county fair boosters to the number of several hundred are to make a two-day excursion into Central and West Texas during the coming week in the interest of the fair. The train will spend several hours in Temple on Thursday, July 15, and from here will proceed to Waco, where the night will be spent. J. M. Carroll, president of the Temple Young Men's Business League has been invited to accompany the party. The visitors will be properly entertained by the several commercial organizations during their stay here.

To Re-Build at Temple.

Temple, Tex., July 8.—The burnt business block destroyed in Monday afternoon's fire, in which the old national building, occupied by Wiggins' sarge, was licked up by flames, will be rebuilt at an early date, according to the owner, J. B. Conlisk, of this city, who is waiting on an adjustment of fire insurance before taking further action. A one-story concrete and fire-proof building will be erected with a frontage of sixty feet on Third street, and a depth of 110 feet, to cost about $3500.

Dipping Dap for Belton.

Belton, Tex., July 8.—Manager A. K. Short of the Bell county state experiment farm is in receipt of plans and specifications for the construction of a model concrete dipping vat to be installed on the grounds of the Bell county Agricultural Fair at Midway.

The services of an expert will be furnished by A. M. College during the fair, in order to give farmers practical demonstration of how dipping should be done.

Edgar E. Witt Talks to Working Boys

Edgar E. Witt, floral representative from this district, addressed the members of the Working Boys' club last night, telling them some of the laws relating to juveniles that were placed on the statute books of Texas and why they were placed there. All these laws contemplate the protection of children in the hope that they will develop into the most efficient and most useful citizens, he said, and he pleaded with the boys to see to it that their minds and bodies are not scarred in youth, assuring them that the scars would remain with them through life. He called upon the boys to work while they work and play while they play.

A number of special musical selections were furnished at the club last night. Harry Bahl played two popular violin selections with piano accompaniment by Miss Bertha Ferris of St. Louis, a vocal quartet composed of Mesdames J. C. F. Kyger and C. W. Atkins and Messrs. Lera D. and Ardis Kyger, sang two plantation melodies and little 9-year-old Murray Kyger of Mason, Tex., who is visiting relatives in the city, delighted the audience by singing "If I Only Had a Home Sweet Home," the plaint of an orphan child.

Negro House Burns.

A small house occupied by negroes on Oak street, East Waco, was destroyed by fire about 5:30 yesterday afternoon. Two alarms were turned in. The department responded to a false alarm from the box at Bridge street and H. & T. C. railroad about midnight last night.

Teachers Elected Juvenile School

Gatesville, Tex., July 8.—The board of trustees of the independent school district of the state juvenile training school met here yesterday and elected the following teachers:

W. J. Butler of Trenton, principal; W. W. Seaton of Gatesville, Miss Alice of Gainesville, Miss Jennie May Maudlin of Gatesville, Miss Della McDonald of Copperton Cove, Mrs. Maggie Johnson of Gatesville, Miss Ethel Brown of Austin and Mrs. Agnes Stephens of Corsicana. Three were teachers last year.

The board is composed of W. L. Blanton, Dr. H. C. Homan and F. P. West.

NUMBERS PASS THE TESTS

Until Ballot is Restricted to Persons Who Are Bona Fide Citizens, Corrupt Voting Will Continue.

Measure Up to Standards Required by International Y. M. C. A. and Get Buttons.

Laredo, Tex., July 5.

To the Waco Morning News:

I have read your editorial in The News of Sunday 27, asking the voters to go to the polls on July 24 and defeat amendment No. 1, an amendment which should it become a part of the constitution, would go a long way towards clearing up the political situation as it has existed in Texas the past several years. I know, as every American voter on the border knows, that the foreign vote of the border counties holds the balance of power in Texas. I fully realize the amendment would make it possible for few fraudulent votes to be cast, but on the other hand should it become law as per wording of the amendment, there would be fifty to seventy-five thousand foreign voters on the border, who are not and never expect to be American citizens, and who have been voting in all elections for years, who could not vote. These people, as soon as they get in Texas, are solicited to take out their first papers in order that the saloon politician may be able to use them. In the years 1913 and 1914 there were between 250 and 300 alien voters solicited here by one party, to be used in the saloon and brewery interests—and they voted them to a man.

Our only hope is for all real American voters to go to the polls on July 24 and make this amendment No. 1 a law and stop this wholesale corruption of the ballot box in Texas. Should this amendment be defeated the citizens of Texas turn over the ballot box to the foreign voter and he holds the balance of power. Texans can not afford to let this amendment be defeated. The saloon and brewery interests have already worked these border counties and have been running long editorials in a daily paper on the border, owned and published by foreign capital. These editorials are gotten up by foreigners and are asking these same foreigners to rally to the polls on July 24 and defeat this amendment, this same paper having carried a three-column editorial page gotten up by a man who has been speaking over the state for several years in interest of saloons and breweries at so much per speech.

I am of opinion that the Waco Morning News and Dr. A. J. Barton have another thing coming. I hope they will think that the Waco Morning News how far they have missed the mark. I have lived on the border twenty-two years, and know if the other American voters in Texas do not, the foreign border vote holds the balance of power in Texas politics.

It is up to you, Texas voter, to change these conditions.

R. P. WOODWARD.

Alessandro's Band Will Give Concerts At Cozy Theater

Admirers of Alessandro's band will have the opportunity of hearing the full band in daily concerts at the Cozy theater beginning Monday. Prof. V. Alessandro, director of the band, and E. F. Griswold, manager of the Cozy, have closed an agreement by which the theatre will be opened Monday, showing special motion picture features and presenting Alessandro's full band of twenty-five pieces. A number of high grade vocal soloists have been engaged to assist in the concerts.

Prof. Alessandro announces that the organization of his band has been maintained, and that a number of recent compositions have been added to the repertoire for the benefit of the Waco people who appreciate good music. Pictures shown at the Cozy will be latest feature releases. Special arrangements have been made to increase the coolness of the Cozy, already one of the coolest places in Waco.

Special Summer Ticket $1.30 in Admissions for $1 Now on sale.

Special stress is being laid on swimming by the Waco Young Men's Christian Association during the summer months. Physical Director E. W. Conway this year has departed from the usual custom of allowing physical activities of the association to let down during the heated term, and is conducting a vigorous campaign in the pool.

The physical department, knowing the need and importance of reaching the boy as early as possible, and especially in relation of teaching them to swim correctly, has decided to put on a special swimming ticket to boys from 6 years to 11 years. Admission to the boys' membership is possible to all boys over 12 years.

This special class will fill a great need. Already several parents have been in and placed their sons in the class.

Special instruction is given each boy and the association guarantees to learn the boy to swim. If he learns quickly as most boys do, the ticket holds good to Sept. 10, 1915.

Classes are Monday, Wednesday and Friday, beginning Monday, July 12 at 10:30 a. m. Parents are earnestly invited to come to the building and enquire thoroughly about the special feature.

Nearly every day since the boys returned from camp, has been employed by them trying for the three buttons (first, second and third tests) and the fourth test, which is called Y. M. C. A. life-savers' award. The award is a sterling silver watch-fob.

The tests in order are:

1. Swim 50 feet, any way.

2. (a) Swim 50 yards any stroke.

(b) Swim 50 feet on back.

(c) Dive properly.

1. Standing dive.

2. Running dive.

3. (a) Swim 200 yards, any stroke.

(b) Swim 50 yards on back.

(c) Dive, and bring up objects from the bottom.

(d) Teach another boy to swim.

The button for this third test is awarded upon proof of contestant teaching the other boy.

4. (Life-savers' award.)

(a) Swim 200 yards.

1. 100 yards on back (without arms or hands).

2. 100 yards one stroke.

(b) Dive into eight feet of water and bring to surface a loose bag of sand weighing at least ten pounds.

(c) Demonstrate:

1. On land, five holds and their breaks.

2. In water, two holds and their breaks.

3. Rescue and tow person of own weight twenty yards, using two different holds and strokes.

(d) Demonstrate Schaefer method of resuscitation.

John Harvey Nash Fires Texas' Salute At Culver School

John Harvey Nash, young son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Nash Sr. of this city, who left here a few weeks ago to enter Culver Military Institute at Culver, Ind., was given the honor of firing the cannon salute to Texas in the Fourth of July celebration at the school last Monday. The school always holds a military celebration of the nation's natal day and a regular feature of that program is the firing of a salute to each state in the union, the cannon salute to each state being fired by some student from that state. This honor for Texas fell to the young Dacian who had just entered, a bit of news that is very gratifying to his family and many friends here.

FREUND'S NEW STORE FINEST IN SOUTHWEST

HANDSOME ESTABLISHMENT AT SIXTH AND AUSTIN OPENED FOR BUSINESS.

Informal Reception to Be Held and Refreshments Served Tomorrow Night.

Doors of the new store of Sam Freund & Co. were opened for business at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and a great many Waco men and women took advantage of the first opportunity to inspect the establishment, called by travelers the finest of its kind in the Southwest. Mr. Freund will be host to friends and customers in the new store from 6:30 to 10 o'clock tomorrow night. Refreshments will be served from the fountain, and souvenirs will be provided for ladies and gentlemen.

Arrangements for satisfying the most exacting requirements of users of tobacco in its various forms provided in the new Freund store are of the most modern type, and are the most perfect ever installed in the city. Among the novelties is an individual humidifier cabinet for the use of customers, by use of which a man may purchase his own box of cigars, have them placed in his own individual humidifier case, to which he carries the key, and use them at his pleasure, with the satisfaction that they will be kept in perfect condition. A large humidifier with plate glass display front is provided at the rear of the store for keeping the stock of cigars and tobaccos. In addition the new store is equipped with up-to-date machinery for repairing pipes.

Appeal of the soda fountain and quiet tables for ladies and children was proven by the few hours of business yesterday, during which many stepped in to be served with delicious refreshments from the fountain, and to examine the perfect and magnificent appointments of this "man's" store. Mr. Freund announces that ladies and children will at all times receive the most satisfactory of service from the fountain, which is designed especially to appeal to them.

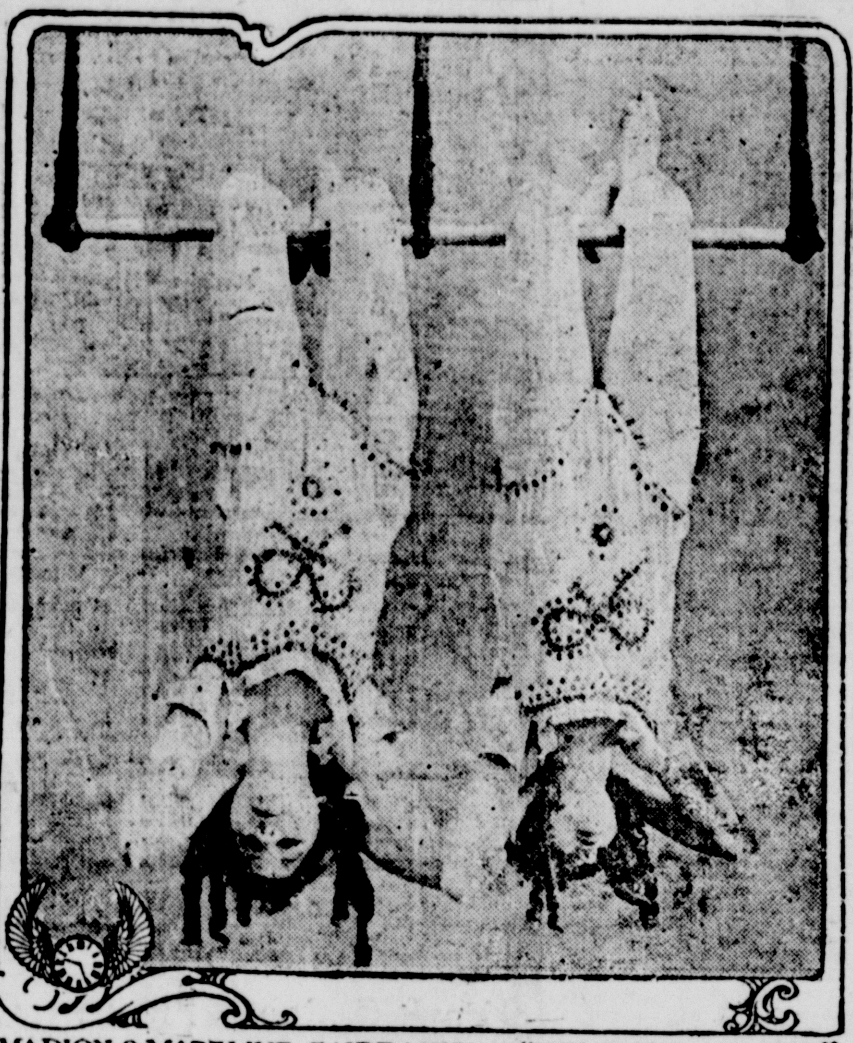

The plate glass cases, the marble and onyx of the fountain and the trimmings of the walls and cases blend with the silver gray finished oak of the fixtures to form one of the most charming ensembles possible. A handsome tile floor and stenciled walls and ceiling finish the picture. Fixtures were made in Waco by the Mailander company.

The rear of the building with a mezzanine floor which crowns the storage humidifier is utilized for the offices and shipping departments to care for the monster wholesale trade of Sam Freund & Co. The original store in the Metropole building, which had become too small to house the growing wholesale business of the firm, will be maintained as one of the chain of retail stores established by Mr. Freund during his twenty-two years of business in Waco.

At The Hippodrome

MARION & MADELINE FAIRBANKS IN "THE FLYING TWINS" FOUR-PART MUTUAL MASTERPICTURE PRODUCED BY THANHOUSER Hippodrome Today and Tomorrow.

THEATRES Saturday at The Rex

THEATRES Hippodrome.

"The Flying Twins."

Madeline and Marion Fairbanks, known as the Thanhouwer twins, two of the loveliest young girls in the world of motion pictures, are featured in "The Flying Twins," an elaborate circus Mutual Masterpicture showing at the Hippodrome today and tomorrow, shown with Charlie Chaplin in "Caught in the Rain."

It is claimed that Mr. Thanhouwer hired a whole circus in which to take scenes for this new photoplay. The story deals with two girls who became circus stars. A circus came to town, and they watched the wonderful sights with eager interest. When the show left town, the two little girls went with it and later became daring trapeze performers.

"The Flying Twins" is realism in its very perfection. It shows a street parade, a real ring performance, wild animals and Harry LaPearl, the famous clown. Harry LaPearl has made a reputation for himself as a pantomimic artist in the ring. How he will duplicate his success on the screen. Lorraine Huling, the popular screen favorite, will have the leading role.

"Caught in the Rain."

Charlie Chaplin, the star of "Caught in the Rain," showing at the Hippodrome with "The Flying Twins" is a man of many startling adventures. Recently rumor has had it that Charlie had been killed and another stating that he had gone crazy. Each of these are erroneous, as the following letter from the comedian proves.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 1.

My Dear Photoplay Public:

I wish to thank you for my many kind inquiries about my health. I am willing to stake my word of honor that I am alive. My moustache still has that funny little quirk and my feet twinkle when I walk.

I have been unable to convince any insurance company that I have been injured, killed or otherwise incapacitated. Some people have been unkind enough to say that I am crazy. All are entitled to their own opinions, but I would say in defense that they don't know me.

I am still on the job. If I don't make you laugh, I will admit that I am a dead one, but not until then.

Yours in fun, CHARLES CHAPLIN.

REX THEATRE.

"Are You a Mason?"

The Famous Players' comedy sensation "Are You a Mason?" featuring America's Beau Brummel, John Barrymore, and a host of clever comedy artists, will be the principal attraction at the Rex theatre today.

For quite a number of years Mr. Barrymore has held an envious position among the many stellar lights of the speaking stage and has been equally successful in the silent drama, his present vehicle being his most pretentious achievement.

FENTRESS AGAIN TOO MUCH FOR THE NAVS

NIP RALLY IN THE NINTH

Skippers Start Get-Together, but Three Weak Pop-Ups Stop the Effort.

Fort Worth, July 8.—Fentress, who has a clean record against Waco, had no trouble in holding the Navigators in check today, while Fort Worth pounded Ogle hard in the pinches and won 4 to 1. The failure of Atz to cover second base with an easy double play in slight robbed Fentress of a shutout. Four of Fort Worth's seven hits were two-baggers.

In the second Hunter doubled down the left-field foul line. Lee bunted and was safe. When Womber juggled Grubb's peg, Hunter scored on McChesney's hot drive to Conwell.

With one down in the seventh, Walters was slatted. Conwell hit to Lee, who would have made the play at second on Walters, an easy double, but Atz did not cover. Walters scored on Womber's single to center.

With one down in the eighth, Stow walked. Atz was hit by the pitcher. Walters pegged a rifle shot to Tanner at second and Stow was put out, but Melver doubled to right center, scoring Atz. Harper singled to center, scoring Melver. Hunter walked. Lee singled, scoring Harper.

A base on balls to Crichlow and James' single, followed by Harper's error in returning the ball to the infield, put men on second and third with none down in the ninth, but Walters, Conwell and Womber fled out. Ogle pulled out of a bad hole in the third.

Inflied Taps Cause Rout of Naylor

Houston, July 8.—After Naylor and Newman had made errors, San Antonio bombarded Naylor's shins with inflied smashes and scored two runs in the eighth inning, breaking a tie and winning the first game of the series 5 to 3. The visitors played an errorless game in the field.

Leverette's Slow Ball Puzzles the Giants

Dallas, July 8.—Shreveport defeated Dallas this afternoon 3 to 2 in a slow game, the feature of which was the excellent pitching of Leverette for the visitors. Dallas was unable to solve the slow ball Leverette tossed and only two hits were potted off his delivery. Renfer, for the locals, was hit safely eleven times.

SPORTING COMMENT

Three hits—ye gods!

It doesn't look particularly bright for an even break on the road.

Art Schwind, the Oiler shortstop, is at the bedside of his bride, who is serious ill.

Alz and Walters were among the "slatted," meaning rammed in the ribs with a pitched ball.

Fred Wohlenbein seems to be in the game anyway—a stolen base and one of the trio of swats.

Rumor has it that Cap Leidy is after another pitcher. Always something stirring when Cap is bossing the job.

It looks as if these Navigators are already beaten when the umpire announces that Fentress is to work.

Bill Fagan's curve was a win off the fellow with the windmill delivery—some time.

Back to that old .600 mark again for the Pirates. They don't stay under it long at a time. Incidentally, they gained another notch on the Nave. But then remember they are at home—and they are some home bunch.

MORNING NEWS DEFEATS TRIBUNE.

Pinch hits by Wolschuch and Fagan, together with errors and wild pitching on the part of the Tribune nine, caused the defeat of the latter by the Morning News.

Fagan pitched his usual brilliant game, being unhittable except in one inning, when hard drives by Normat James and Clark Byrd resulted in two scores. The other came on a hit by Byrd, a stolen base and overthrow of third by Dutch.

Umpire, Wright and Gardner.
